Aims/Objectives – Why – Where - Background / Storyboard

Why was this project developed? Give some background on reasons for the project.

The floods in Pakistan have brought unprecedented devastation. Millions of people have been displaced. Petarian Foundation is working to alleviate the miseries of a targeted number of people for a period of 4 weeks after which we hope to participate in the rehabilitation and reconstruction work.

Where it is located and whether it is rural or urban.

Our focus is on people displaced in Sindh. Our camps will be at different places.

What group is the focus of the project (youth, elderly, families. general community etc).

Focus is on families which includes all age groups. These are people who are shelterless or are housed in camps.

Problem Being Addressed

What were the problems that you faced initially and how they were resolved.

The main problems were of getting to the people – logistics and transportation – due to roads being inundated and the security situation. We have to travel to the affected areas with proper guards.

The Approach Taken

Once the problems were resolved, what was the approach taken to implement the project.

We hope that with waters receding within a month, we would like to see the people going back to their homes to rebuild the houses and their lives. We will insha Allah participated in the reconstruction work

Things We Would Do Differently

The Project - How, Who, When? This is already described above

Funding - who provided funds and other resources? Our members, supporters, and public at large.

Stakeholders - who ran the project, who else was involved and how did they contribute? The project is headed by Kazi Zulkader Siddiqui, Chairman of Petarian Foundation. Also involved are members of the Foundation and other Petarians like Brig (R) Mukhtar Ahmed, Rashid Nabi, Mahmood Baweja, Major Aamir Syed, Abdul Nabi Thaheem, Dr. Agha Taj and others.

Community participation - how did you involve the community and stakeholders in the project. We have volunteers from within the Petarian community and we are communicating with all through group emails and phone calls.

Implementation -what were the steps in carrying out the project? We have made arrangements for food to be prepared in “daigs” that are being distributed.

Time frame - what was the time frame for the project and the short-term and long-term developments?

We expect this work to last for 4 weeks approximately. The maximum period should not exceed 8 weeks. We would like to see the people becoming self sufficient after that and concentrating on rebuilding.
